The Church Officers and Evangelism

2nd Service

Acts 18:1-4

The church officers are very important figures in the church and for evangelism. They are very important to the extent that they are called as the 70 church officers. They are able to partake in a much broader evangelism compared to the evangelism disciples. Also, it can become a fundamental evangelism as well. It is much easier for them to evangelize through their businesses and occupations. They are in a very important position to naturally evangelize in their respected fields.
